The mission of the Lincolnton Museum and Cultural Center (LMCC) is simple: to tell the rich history of more than 450 years of African American experience in the Oldest City in America. From the first Spanish settlement in 1565, through Indian Wars, British ownership, Spanish ownership again, US ownership, the American Civil War, Emancipation, Reconstruction, Jim Crow laws, and the Civil Rights upheavals of the 1950s and 60s, Blacks have been a critical part of the story of St. Augustine, the birthplace of America.

Become a part of this story when you support LMCC with the purchase of one or more personalized "Bricks in History": for yourself, your children, family or friends, or in memory of someone deceased.
